I.H.S. Grade 9 Hoopfest is a great success

Mr. Damgaard spent countless hours planning the Grade 9 Hoopfest basketball tournament which was held at I.H.S. on Friday and Saturday Jan. 17 & 18. There were eight girls and eight boys teams competing and there were some exciting games between each team. After some hard fought play our girls team took first place in the girls tournament and the boys won the Consolation side of the boys tournament. Congratulations teams and all involved in hosting a great weekend!

Drama class takes play on the road

Mr. Burton's Drama 10/20/30 class performed the play 10 Ways to Survive the Zombie Apocalypse not only at an evening performance at I.H.S. on Thursday, Jan. 16, but they went to both Bowden Grandview and Penhold Crossing schools on Friday, Jan. 17 to perform for their students. They did a great job and staff and students at both schools thoroughly enjoyed the show! Well done!

Season going strong for Sr. Basketball teams

The Sr. Boys basketball team has increased their win count as they continue to play hard at both league and tournament games. The Sr. Girls are getting stronger and working hard as they grow and learn throughout their season. Both teams are enjoying some tough and challenging play, but doing great!
